Though We Are Many

Though we are many, we are one body, we who come to share this living bread,
Cup of salvation, shared among all nations, nourishing us now and evermore.

1. We gather in this place round the table of the Lord.
Christ's presence is revealed in our communion and his Living Word.
2. Now our communion recalls Christ's death and resurrection.
This living sacrifice is our salvation now and evermore.

The renovations of the Parish House and St. Eustace's Pastoral Centre is now nearly completed. Heartfelt thanks to parishioners who were able to support the project by way of a loan or donation.

As the project draws to a close, if you were willing to lend the parish €500 for the two years, but have not yet forwarded the contribution, it would be greatly appreciated if the matter can be finalised by the end of July.

Fr. Paul Taylor P.P.

In a recent letter our Archbishop Diarmuid Martin has asked us as parishes to consider practical measures for Adult Faith Development.

We would appreciate any suggestions parishioners might have about suitable areas for reflection and deepening your understanding of our faith.

If you have any ideas on this matter please write them down and return them to me at the parish office or sacristy.

Climb Till Your Dreams Come True

Often your tasks will be many
And more than you think you can do,
Often the road will be rugged,
And the hills insurmountable too.

But always remember the hills ahead,
Are never as steep as they seem,
And with faith in your heart start upwards,
And climb till you reach your dream

For faith is a mover of mountains,
There's nothing that God cannot do.
So start out today with faith in your heart,
And climb 'till your dreams come true!
