Vocations Sunday - 11th April 2016
 Vocations Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to promote and pray for vocations in our Church. We need to provide support to committed men and women who believe that their call to single, married, ordained or consecrated life is from God.
 We currently have ten students studying for the priesthood in our Archdiocese. We have seven men studying in Maynooth and three in the Irish College, Rome. Last year we had three new candidates for seminary. Presently, we are working with a number of men who hope to join in the future.
The collection for the support for the priesthood for our diocese takes place on this day and replaces the Share Collection. We all need to work together and support each other in our call to serve the people in our care.

The Apostles Creed
 I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Regina Coeli (Recited instead of the Angelus from Easter to Pentecost)
 Queen of Heaven, rejoice. Alleluia.
 For He Whom Thou was worthy to bear. Alleluia.
 Has risen as He promised. Alleluia.
 Pray for us to our God. Alleluia.
 Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary. Alleluia.
 For the Lord has risen indeed. Alleluia.
 Let us pray: O God, Who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son Our Lord Jesus Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, that, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may attain the joys of eternal salvation. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.
