The Apostles' Creed
 I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

STATEMENT OF ARCHBISHOP DIARMUID MARTIN ON ORLANDO SHOOTINGS

"People all around the world are shocked with the news of the terrible loss of life at the Pulse Nightclub in Orlando".
 People all over the world are shocked. How do we explain that our modern society can somehow be held to ransom in successive gun attacks by individuals or small groups filled with hatred? It could happen again and it could happen anywhere. This time, the victims were members of the LGBT community; in other cases the victims were from the media or simply innocent bystanders. Fingers and blame are unfoundedly often hastily pointed at the entire honest Islamic community.
 Any culture which gives notoriety to violence only encourages the deranged or the simply evil to attempt to repeat such actions.
 As followers of Jesus Christ, Christians should work more and more to purify ourselves from all prejudice, to be in the forefront in dialogue and reconciliation and have the resolution to courageously confront those who anywhere foster violence."

"Our first task in approaching another people, another culture, another religion is to take off our shoes, for the place we are approaching is holy. Else we may find ourselves treading on men's dreams.
 More serious still, we may forget that God was here before our arrival. We have to try to sit where they sit, to enter sympathetically into the pains and griefs and joys of their history and see how those pains and griefs and joys have determined the premises of their argument.
 We have, in a word, to be 'present' with them."

Recently Deceased:
 We remember in our prayers Jim Clancy, Inglewood, Celbridge and offer our sympathy to his wife Sheila, his daughters, sons and all his family. Jim was a devoted family man, loved and very involved in the rugby community and enjoyed his long life to the full. He was in recent years reunited with his siblings which brought him great joy. May he rest in peace.
 We pray for Sally (Sarah) Keating, Dara Court, whose funeral took place on Wednesday. We offer our prayers to her children Mandy and Richard and grandchildren. She had a great love of fashion and great interest in current affairs which she loved to debate. She will be sadly missed by them all.
 May she rest in peace.
