

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Planned Giving - this weeks weekly envelope collection was €1061.45 Thanks to all who contributed and to the collectors

We would like to express our deep appreciation to all those who helped distribute the annual receipts and acknowledgement envelopes in various parts of the Parish over the last 10 days.

There willingness to lend a hand reflects the great community spirit we have in our parish family.

We appreciate the quick response of parishioners who have returned the CHY3 (Tax form).

If you are new to our parish and have not yet registered with the parish and would like to support our beautiful Churches and parish programmes through the Thanksgiving Envelopes or by direct debit please feel welcome to contact Bernadette at the Parish Office.

THE LIVING SPIRIT

Many are avidly seeking but they alone find who remain in continual silence...Every man who delights in a multitude of words, even though he says admirable things, is empty within. If you love truth, be a lover of silence. Silence like the sunlight will illuminate you in God and will deliver you from the phantoms of ignorance. Silence will unite you to God himself...

More than all things love silence: it brings you a fruit that tongue cannot describe. In the beginning we have to force ourselves to be silent. But then there is born something that draws us to silence. May God give you an experience of this "something" that is born of silence. If only you practice this, untold light will dawn on you in consequence...after a while a certain sweetness is born in the heart of this exercise and the body is drawn almost by force to remain in silence.

ISAAC OF NINEVEH

Official Family Prayer for World Meeting of Families 2018

God, Our Father, we are brothers and sisters in Jesus your Son, One family, in the Spirit of your love.

Bless us with the joy of love.
Make us patient and kind,
gentle and generous,
welcoming to those in need.

Help us to live your forgiveness and peace.

Protect all families with your loving care,

Especially those for whom we now pray:

[We pause and remember family members and others by name]

Increase our faith,
Strengthen our hope,
Keep us safe in your love,

Make us always grateful for the gift of life that we share.

This we ask, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Thank you, God, for the good prospect of heaven, inhabited by those who have died in the flesh but risen in the body.as jesus did before them. Let me remember them with you those I loved here but see no longer, who now serve and sit with you. Tell them I love them, and, if it be your will, may they be among the first to welcome me into heaven.

We offer our sympathy to the family of Breda Farrell of St. Patrick's Park, who died suddenly on Wednesday morning 18th July. She was a devoted mother to her 3 children and a grandmother to 7 grandchildren who have fond memories of her. She gave generously of her time in the wider community especially in St. Raphael's Charity Shop. She will be greatly missed by her many neighbours and family. May she rest in peace.
