The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into Hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

THE LIVING SPIRIT

For life and to see good days, we must do something. It can be simply put even if not simply done.

God says, "keep your tongue free from vicious talk and your lips from all deceit' This is not happening in the multitude. Is it happening in you?

Don't let the multitude be the excuse for its not happening in you. God is searching among the multitude for someone, for anyone, who really longs for what we were made for in his image and likeness.

And there is more that the individual who responds can do. (I don't say "must do" as if to say, "you damned well better or you'll be damned:' No, I say "can do;" because the Lord is inviting and will help.) The something else is this. God says, "turn away from evil and do good; let peace be your quest and aim":

RECENTLY DECEASED:

Anne Purcell: Our prayers and sympathy are extended to the family of Anne, to her husband Phil, her sons, daughters and grandchildren. Anne lived for many years in St. Patrick's Park and always had her door open for visitors with tea and a welcoming smile. May she rest in peace.

Caroline Meade: A large crowd gathered in the Church for the funeral Mass and fond farewell to our fellow parishioner and friend Caroline. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her and we all hold dear memories of our interactions with her. We offer our sympathy to her family and friends and we will keep her in our prayers. May she rest in peace.

John O' Sullivan. We remember John in our prayers and offer our sympathy to his father Pat, his sisters and brother and extended family and friends. John died at the young age of 30 years. He had a great love of football and was always full of chat, with his smile larger than life. May he rest in peace.

Daffodil Day March 22nd

People in Celbridge have supported daffodil Day so well throughout the years. Last year €7684 was collected locally on that day, the Irish Cancer Society's main fundraising event.

In Celbridge four venues generously allow us to collect at their premises - Tesco, Aldi, Centra, Super Valu. We collect from 9am till 7pm. It can be challenging to cover the hours. If you have time and are interested in helping on Daffodil Day, please contact us. Your help will be much appreciated in raising funds for life saving cancer research, patient care and support.

"We won't give up until cancer does" Thank you
